Quest Reporter Express Active Directory Reports
All user-based reports available when you have installed Reporter Express

Report	Description
Account Expiration Date	This report shows the expiration date for selected users. Apply a filter to this report to find users whose accounts will expire in the next 60 days.
Accounts that have never logged on	Displays any user account that has never logged on.
All Names for Active Directory Users	This report will show all of the different names that can be given to a user in Active Directory.
Disabled Accounts	Quickly locate accounts that have been disabled - these accounts may be unlocked or deleted using Action Enabled.
Extended Exchange User Attributes	If you have extended your AD Schema with Exchange 2000, these user attributes will be available for a report.
General User Information	This report is an output of primary user information.
Group Membership by User	This report shows all the groups that have selected users as members.
Home Directories	This report is an output of all available home directory information.
Last Password Change	This report shows the last time selected users changed their password.
Last Time Profile was Used	This report shows the last time each profile was used for selected users.
Locked Out Accounts	Quickly locate locked out accounts - these may be unlocked by using Action Enabled.
Logon Script Path	This report is an output of logon script information.
Password Expiration Date	This report shows the password expiration date for the selected user(s). Apply a filter to find users that have not changed their password in the last 60 days.
Password Properties	This report is an output of all available password property information.
Profile Path by User	This report is an output of profile path information.
Remote Access Service (RAS) Information	This report displays the RAS information.
Terminal Services Information	This report displays the Terminal Services information.
User List by OU	Displays a list of all users found, grouped by their OU or container.
Users - Account	Contains attributes found on the Account page of User properties.
Users - Address	Contains attributes found on the Address page of User properties.
Users - All MMC Properties	Contains attributes found on the property pages of users from the Users and Computers MMC Snap in.
Users - Dial-in	Contains attributes found on the Dial-in page of User properties.
Users - Environment	Contains attributes found on the Environment page of User Properties. These settings override client specified settings.
Users - General	Provides all of the information found on the General tab of User properties in Users and Computers.

Report	Description
Users - Member Of	Provides a list of all groups the user(s) is a member of. Use this report to help determine if your group membership standards are being followed.
Users - Organization	Displays all attributes found on the Organization page of User properties. Apply a grouping on Department to get a useful list of all employees, or add a filter to search for users of a particular department or job title.
Users - Profile	Displays attributes found on the Profile page of User properties.
Users - Remote Control	Contains attributes for setting Terminal Services remote control settings.
Users - Sessions	Contains attributes for setting Terminal Services timeout and reconnection settings.
Users - Telephones	Contains all published telephone numbers for the selected users found on the Telephones page of User properties, including Home, Pager, Mobile and Fax numbers.
Users - Terminal Services Profile	Contains attributes for found on the Terminal Services Profile page of User Properties.
Users' Home Drive Size	Calculates the size of the selected users' home drives. This can help provide useful information for disk usage analysis and for finding users who are storing too much data on network storage.